

ABOUT OUR MENU

Thank you for letting us introduce Nuevo Leon Mex-Mex Restaurant's catering and dining services. We have been building our impeccable reputation for quality food and service since 1994.

Mexico's cuisine is regional. The food we serve is an exceptional mixture of two distinct regions; the south-central area is rich in vegetation and famous for fiery hot spices and savory "guisos". Conversely, the northeast is arid, and enjoys the staples of charcoal grilled steaks and succulent tacos.

We've developed our recipes for the restaurant and for our catering services by sticking to the Original family recipes and traditional cooking techniques that were used at the time these plates were created, accepting no substitutions or shortcuts.

Our prices make us indisputably the area's finest catering and dining value. We strive to be sure you are paying a fair price while offering fresh, high quality foods, sanitary preparation, on-time delivery, generous portions and many extras.

Many of our clients are working within the budgets dictated by the slow economy. We will be happy to suggest economical solutions without cutting corners.

Our client list includes large and small companies as well as individuals. All of our clients have one thing in common: demand for fine food and excellent service which we have provided time and again to rave reviews.

Please call us today with any questions or to schedule a consultation or book your catering to make your next event's dining and beverage service memorable and delicious.

Thank you for your interest in our delivery and catering services. Please note that we will customize your menu to fit your taste and budget.
